

HIGH COST OF PAPER NO BAR TO CONGRESS

Many Tons Wasted During Last Legislative Session.

Over four tons of useless papers were removed from rooms in the Senate office building yesterday.

The accumulation of waste paper and documents by members of the House will be five times as great and with the surplus from other offices in the Capitol will bring the total up to a figure that means an economic waste to the government of thousands of dollars.

RAPS GERMANY'S CLAIM TO FINDING INCA CITY

Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale, Answers Criticism.

(By the International News Service.)
Tobyhanna, Pa., Sept. 9.—Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale, learned today for the first time that his discovery of an ancient Inca city during his exploration in South America, has been questioned in Germany on the ground that the city had been found several years earlier by J. M. von Hassel, a German engineer. The professor read with deep interest a dispatch in which a writer in the German newspaper Vossische Zeitung was quoted as accusing him of having used von Hassel's sketches and maps.

"I have never heard the name of the German mentioned in the dispatch," said Prof. Bingham. "I have never seen the articles, maps or notes."

rites for Memphis DEAD AT ARLINGTON

The naval hospital ship Solace, carrying the bodies of nine United States sailors, who lost their lives on the cruiser Memphis when it was wrecked off the coast near Santo Domingo City, and 100 patients collected in the West Indies, arrived yesterday morning at the Washington Navy Yard.

Four of the dead and a portion of the body of one sailor will be given burial in the Arlington National Cemetery Monday morning, with full naval honors. The identified four are:

Arthur H. Barker, of Parkers Landing, Pa.; Elphard J. Quinn, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; James H. Townsend, of Wilmington, Del.; and L. L. Crozier, of Marionville, Pa.

JOURNALIST'S REMAINS SENT TO MINNEAPOLIS

The body of James Gray, Washington correspondent of the Minneapolis Journal, who died suddenly Friday, was yesterday sent to Minneapolis. An escort of newspaper men accompanied the remains to the Union Station.

RETAIL MERCHANTS PLAN CREDIT MEN'S ROUND-UP

The credit men of Washington will inaugurate the fall season's work with a "round up" meeting of the credit men's section of the Retail Merchants' Association, Thursday evening, September 28, at the Commercial Club.

CLARK AND MARSHALL OFF TO THEIR HOMES

Scarcely a dozen members of the House and Senate remained in Washington yesterday, and they were making preparations to get away just as soon as possible. Both Speaker Clark and Vice President Marshall joined the exodus. The Speaker going home to his district, and the Vice President returning to Indianapolis to prepare for the ceremonies incident to his notification, set for next week.

INCOME IF HE STAYS UNWED George Getzgar to Get $25 a Week While a Widower.

New York, Sept. 9.—George Getzgar, of 1001 Ocean avenue, Sheepshead Bay, will get $25 a week from his wife's estate so long as he remains a widower. The will was filed yesterday with the surrogate of Kings County. Mrs. Getzgar died August 7, leaving $100,000.

The greater part of her estate goes to St. Peter's Lutheran Church, of Brooklyn, and the Warburg Orphan's Farm School, at Mount Vernon. Her son, Henry Getzgar, inherits her jewelry and household goods and the income from the residue of the estate. On his death one-quarter of the residue will be divided among relatives, her husband, if he survives, participating in the division.
